

Life/Love Balance

Top Ten Takeaways

- 1 You know why you rock at work? Because you dedicate yourself to it!
- 2 What does he get out of dating you if he can only see you once a week because of your busy schedule?
- 3 Men might value an emotional connection with a less impressive woman over a relationship with a more accomplished woman who has less time available.
- 4 Why would you want to date an unhappy guy who doesn't make an effort? If he's that super busy and unhappy, it's NOT your job to save him.
- 5 Do not value ambivalent men more than enthusiastic ones.
- 6 You shouldn't ever have to wonder where you stand with a guy after 6 weeks or so. The right guy lets you know.
- 7 Don't deny your own needs to keep the peace. That's a recipe for disaster.
- 8 You have to be willing to walk to find a guy who will meet your needs.
- 9 The opposite of love is indifference, not hate.
- 10 Sometimes, you've just got to fire the underperforming intern.
